U.S. Probation Officer Action:

Mr. Harly has been under the supervision of the Middle District of Florida's Fort Myers office since his release from imprisonment on April 19, 2006. He admitted his drug use to his supervising probation officer and acknowledged that he had made a poor decision. Mr. Harly was apologetic and remorseful. He is currently involved in substance abuse treatment, and participates in weekly group counseling sessions and monthly individual sessions. Mr. Harly was reprimanded for his drug use and was advised that future incidents of drug use could result in his term of supervised release being revoked. Given that this is his first incident of noncompliance and that he has involved himself in drug treatment, the Middle District of Florida is not requesting further action at this time. Our office is in agreement with this decision.

Unless otherwise directed by the Court, the probation office will continue to closely monitor Mr. Harly's involvement with substance abuse treatment and test him for drug use. His failure to follow through with treatment measures will be brought to Your Honor's attention.

Respectfully submitted,

by Frances J. Regan
U.S. Probation Officer
